St James

Produced at Holker Farm Dairy from unpasteurised ewes' milk.
This rind-washed cheese has a savoury flavour of smoked ham and crumbly texture.

Mrs Kirkham's

Considered to be the star of Lancashire cheeses, Produced on the family farm for three generations.

Ardrahan

This semi-soft cheese made from cow's milk originates from Ardrahan Farmhouse, Kanturk, Co. Cork in Ireland and has an earthy, farmhouse taste & zesty tang that enhances the rich buttery and meaty flavour.

Stichelton

An English blue cheese, Neal's Yard Dairy produce Stichelton in small batches using raw milk, rennet from calves' stomachs and hand-ladling and smoothing techniques.

Cashel Blue...

...was the first Irish blue cheese, first marketed in 1984; it was named after the Rock of Cashel overlooking the pastures close to the cheese farm of Jane and Louis Grubb.
